The August 9, 2018 monthly meeting of SALT was dedicated to two presentations vs. a regular agenda.

Presentation/Guest(s) at 10:00 a.m. in Stern 201:
Presentation on College Reads book, The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas (Renard Harris, Assoc. Vice President and Chief Diversity Officer, and Matthew Cressler, Asst. Professor, Religious Studies)
- Discussion was facilitated by Renard Harris covering current events in U.S. and Charleston, student experiences and themes brought out in the novel.
- Matthew Cressler provided an outline of references/tools for talking about The Hate You Give.

Presentation at 11:00 a.m. included SALT and Student Employee Supervisors in the division in Stern 205:
Presentation on Student Employment by the Career Center staff (Cheryl Wingert, Coordinator of Student Employment Programs, and Hannah Beam, Student Employment Specialist)
- Included hiring procedures and the documents involved.
- Explained the new posting of positions in Handshake.
- Covered the effects of non-compliance with Student Employment HR and Federal Policies were covered as in possible fines, security breaches, litigation, and missed or late wages.

The meeting adjourned at 12:00 noon.
Link to Student Affairs Leadership Team member listing: http://studentaffairs.cofc.edu/about/salt.php